

Put Another Log on the Fire – A Kiwi Lovesong

Sung by Bill & Boyd (originally from NZ but moved to Australia)

Written by Shel Silverstein, an American cartoonist and songwriter

G

1. Put another log on the fire,

G

D

Cook me up some bacon and some beans.

D

And go out to the car and change the tyre,

G

Wash my socks and sew my old blue jeans.

(Come on, baby, you can)

G

Fill my pipe and then go fetch my slippers,

G7

C

And boil me up another pot of tea,

C

G

Then put another log on the fire, babe,

D

G

And come and tell me why you`re leaving me.

G

2. Oh, don` t I let you wash the car on Sunday,

G

D

don` t I warn you when you`re getting fat.

D

I`m gonna take you fishing with me some day,

D

G

Well, a man can` t love a woman more than that.

G

Ain` t I always nice to your kid sister,

G7

C

Don` t I take her driving every night.

C

G

So sit here at my feet, ` cause I like you when you`re sweet,

D

G

you know that it ain` t feminine to fight. So...
