

Did You Ever? (Nancy Sinatra & Lee Hazelwood)

Intro (last line of verse) F C F C G7 C Men - sing italics Women - sing bold

V1

C
Did you ever?
G7
Could you estimate how many?
C C7
Will you do it anymore?
F C F C
Well, I just wondered, did you ever?

G7
Not so much that you can notice
C
Eight or nine
F C
As soon as you walk out the door
G7 C
All the time

V2

C
Could I fix you one small?
G7
Then how about a nice big...
C C7
Is there any special way?
F C F C
Well, I just wondered, have you ever?
F C F C
~~Well, I just wondered, have you ever?~~

G7
No thanks I just had one
C
That would be just fine
F C
Aww, No, whatever you say
G7 C
All the time
G7 C
All the time

V3

C
Does he look like...
G7
Yeah but he is old?
C C7
Does your father know of it
F C F C
I just wondered, do you ever

G7
No he's taller and more handsome
C
Oh no he's young and in his prime
F C
Hmm. Hmm.. I haven't told him yet
G7 C
All the time

V4

C
But just for old time sake.
G7
Then how about...
C7
Hey, I know just the thing for us
F C F C
Well, I just wondered, have you ever?

G7
Now, that will be much harder
C
Well, are you sure you don't mind
F C
Now I'm afraid I'll miss my bus
G7 C
All the time
