

Black and white - Three Dog Night

A - E - A - E (Play E7 if you can't do E)

A E A E
1. The ink is black, the page is white,

A D E
together we learn to read and write.

A E A E
The child is black, the child is white,

A D E A - D - A - E
the whole world looks upon the sight, a beautiful sight.

E A
And now a child can understand,
E E7 E - E7
that this is the law of all the land, all the la-and.

A E A E
2. The world is black, the world is white,

A D E
it turns by day and then by night.

A E A E
The child is black, the child is white,

A D E A - D - A - E
together they grow to see the light, to see the light.

E A
And now at last we plainly see,
E E7 E - E7
we'll have a dance of liberty.....libert-y-y-y.

A E A E
3. The world is black, the world is white,

A D E
it turns by day and then by night.

A E A E
The child is black, the child is white,

A D E A - D - A - E
the whole world looks upon the sight, a beautiful sight.

A E A E
4. The world is black, the world is white,

A D E
it turns by day and then by night.

A E A E
The child is black, the child is white,

A D E A - D - A - E
together they grow to see the light, to see the light.

A - E - A - E ...A