

Rose (Can I Share A Bed With You) - Toni Williams

Intro: Bm D Bm D

V1 D G D
Oh!, Rose can I share a bed with you?
G D A7
I'm lonesome and I have no place to go.
G D Bm
The pavement on the street is a little co-ld,
D A7 D
and a blanket around my feet will keep away the snow.

V2 D G D
Well, it's hell out there with nothin' to keep me warm.
G D A7
I go for a drink but they won't serve me no more.
G D Bm
I asked a guy for a bottle down at Rooster's Bar
D A7 D
and I ended up being pushed right out the door.

Bridge:

A7 G D A7 G D
If only I could make it again, and get back to the luxuries of life,
D G D A A7 D
I miss my kids, my dog, and my friends, I miss the loving comfort of my wife.

V3 D G D
Oh! Rose, will you help a lonely man?
G D A7
I don't want money, just a bed to warm my bones.
G D Bm
I don't want food or drink or sympathy,
D A7 D
But anything's better than sleeping out on the stones.

V4 D G D
That open fire-place, it sure looks good.
G D A7
I hear the old cat purrin' 'neath the light.
G D Bm
He looks so warm, and snug and contented.
D A7 D
Oh! Rose won't you let me stay the night?
