

Billy Bold - Graham Brazier

Bm7

INTRO: First two lines

Vs 1 Bm7 D
Born in the sight of the Liverpool dock
Bm7 D A Bm7 D
Within the call of the sea, was the sound.....of poverty
Bm7 D
So they write you down on their social lists
Bm7 D A Bm7 D
Songs of war, and girls that don't exist and how.....you can't be free.

CHORUS #1

G A
For yesterday, we were ten years old
G A
Yesterday, we were freezing cold
G A
Yesterday, you had us bought and sold
Em Bm7 D Bm7 D A Bm7 D
But now.....we are Billy Bold (chords to the tune of first two lines of verse)

Vs 2 Bm7 D
Must we immigrate, or stand and fight?
Bm7 D A Bm7 D
Troubled times when we must unite, let the chains.....that bind us free
Bm7 D
There's no need to shout, everybody knows
Bm7 D A Bm7 D
It's wilted now, our English rose, let's stone.....the last Bastille

CHORUS #2

G A
For the battern's hard, and the dungeon's cold
G A
You black and white, you young and old
G A
Yesterday, we did what we were told
Em D
But now.....we are Billy Bold

CHORUS #1 (ending in D like Chorus #2 and straight to Outro)

OUTRO

Em D
And you hear,how the drums they roll
Em D
Street war,must take it's toll
Em D
For now..... We are Billy Bold
