

This Ole House: Shakin' Stevens. (Rosemary Clooney version)

G G7 C
This ole house once knew his children; this ole house once knew his wife.

D D7 ↓ G
This ole house was home and comfort, as they fought the storms of life.

G7 C
This old house once rang with laughter; this old house heard many shouts.

D D7 G
Now it trembles in the darkness, when the lightnin' walks about.

C
Ain't gonna need this house no longer,

G
Ain't gonna need this house no more.

D D7
Ain't got time to fix the shingles,

G G7
Ain't got time to fix the floor.

C
Ain't got time to oil the hinges,

G
Nor to mend the windowpanes.

D
Ain't gonna need this house no longer,

D7 G 2 3 4
Gettin' ready to meet the Saints.

G G7 C
This ole house is gettin' shaky, this ole house is gettin' old.

D D7 G
This ole house lets in the rain, This ole house lets in the cold.

G7 C
Oh, his knees are gettin' chilly, but he feels no fear or pain.

D D7 G
Cause he sees an Angel peekin' through a broken windowpane.

Chorus

G G7 C
This ole house is afraid of thunder, this ole house is afraid of storms.

D D7 G
This ole house just groans and trembles, when the night wind flings its arms.

G7 C
This ole house is gettin' feeble, this old house is needin' paint.

D D7 G
OHHH Just like him it's tuckered out, but he's ready to meet the Saints.

Chorus to end
