

Dominion Road by The Muttonbirds

D - C - G (2x)

D G C G D
 1. Dominion Road is bending under its own weight,
 G C G D
 Shining like a strip, cut from a sheet metal plate,
 G D
 'cos it's just been raining.

D G C G D
 2. Janie reached the point where-she-knew-what-he-meant before he'd opened his mouth
 D G C G D
He couldn't say the same, or he'd have guessed she was moving south,
 G D
 with one of his friends.

D A G D
But it's getting better now, he found it in him to forgive,
 A G D
He walked the city, and he found a place to live
 C#m7 G D + D - C - G x 2
In a halfway house, halfway down Dominion Road.

or barre 4th fret

(then sing higher)

D G C G D
 3. When he watched Jane's brother sell the house, He felt no sense of loss
 G C G D
 More like a mountain-climber looking back having made it across
 G D
 The steepest face.

----- A G D
Oh, but he's still climbing, see him trying to cross the street,
 A G D
he tests his footing, like he was up ten thousand feet
 C#m7 G ~D
above the clouds, halfway down Dominion Road.

----- A G D
But he's getting better now, he rests his head on the windowsill,
 A G D
he watches the city, sees the antennaes in the hills
 C#m7 G D
from the halfway house, halfway down Dominion Road.
 A Em7 G D
Halfway down, halfway down, halfway down Dominion Road. (last line x 3)
