

The Ballad Of Jacques La Mere – Headband

Intro: |G |Am |C |G

V1 |G |D
It was the night ~ ~ of the county fair ~
|Am |D
You said that you'd be there, ~ you'd wait outside ~ ~
|G |D
I met a friend ~ ~ who said you'd pass me by ~
|Am |G |Am |C |G |G
For the charms ~ ~ of Jacques La Mere

CHORUS:

|G |Am
But she was good to me, ~ oh so good to me ~
|C |D
And she said ~ ~ she'd love me long ~ ~
|G |Am
She was good to me, ~ oh so good to me ~
|C |G
But I found out ~ ~ she done me wrong ~ ~

V2 |G |D
I went to find the reason for the sudden change of plan
|Am |D
When I spied her riding dodgems, he was steerin' holdin' hands
|G |D
Now I never could get angry, but inside me something broke
|Am |G
And I don't remember nothing till they dragged me from his throat.

|Am |C |G |G +CHORUS

V3 |G |D
Now I'm sitting here again, and my heart just gives me pain
|Am |D
For I know I'll never be free, and I won't see her again
|G |D
I can still remember clearly, though the years have passed me by
|Am |G
Now she cries out Jacques La Mere's name as the tears drop from her eyes
